

Dr. Jillian Bennett, PhD, BCBA-D, LABA
Licensed Psychologist
Licensed Applied Behavior Analyst

Dr. Bennett has a doctoral degree in Clinical Psychology from the University of Massachusetts. She is also a Board Certified Behavior Analyst. Dr. Bennett has completed training at major hospitals, such as Bradley Children's Hospital (which is a Brown affiliate), and private institutions, such as the May Institute.

Her area of expertise is focused on autism & related neurodiversity. Dr. Bennett specializes in differential diagnosis of giftedness, autism, ADHD, anxiety, OCD, Tics, learning differences, & other emotional or behavioral challenges.

- Neuropsychological Evaluations (ages 1-15)
- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, including Exposure Therapy
- Acceptance & Comittment Therapy
- Behavioral Activation Therapy
- Habit Reversal Training & Skills-Based Behavior Therapy
- School observations, IEP meetings, & consultation
- Parent Training & Support